

List of Interviewees

Clarissa Brocklehurst, Chief Water, Environment and Sanitation, UNICEF, New York, USA

Clarissa Brocklehurst is Head of the Water, Environment and Sanitation Section at UNICEF, New York. Prior to this, she worked as a consultant on water and sanitation based in Ottawa, Canada. She has worked for a variety of clients including the World Bank, the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA), Building Partnerships for Development (BPD) and WaterAid. She has extensive experience in the area of sanitation in Africa and Asia, working on a mix of urban and rural programmes. She studied Civil Engineering at the University of Toronto (1979–1985), where she received her Bachelor's Degree in 1983 and her Master's Degree in 1985.

Contact: Kate Donovan, UNICEF, Tel: +1 (212) 326 7452, kdonovan@unicef.org

Therese Dooley, Senior Advisor Sanitation and Hygiene, UNICEF, New York, USA

Therese Dooley is Senior Advisor Sanitation and Hygiene at UNICEF's Water, Environment and Sanitation Section in New York. She previously worked for UNICEF on sanitation and hygiene in Ethiopia, Afghanistan, Mozambique, and Zimbabwe. Prior to joining UNICEF, she dealt with sanitation and hygiene issues in Lesotho and Zambia with the Irish Volunteer Agency APSO and Ireland Aid. She received a Bachelor of Science (Environmental Health) from the University of Dublin, Trinity College, and a Master of Science (Environmental Health) from the School of Epidemiology and Public Health, University of Dundee. Her main areas of focus are community-based sanitation and hygiene promotion.

Contact: Kate Donovan, UNICEF, Tel: +1 (212) 326 7452, kdonovan@unicef.org

Guy Hutton, Water and Sanitation Program (WSP), World Bank, Phnom Penh, Cambodia

Guy Hutton works as a Senior Regional Economist with the Water and Sanitation Program (WSP). Based in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, he is in charge of the Economics of Sanitation Initiative (ESI) in the region. Prior to joining WSP, Guy Hutton worked as a Research Fellow in Health Economics at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, and was a Project Leader and then Head of the Health Systems and Economics Unit at the Swiss Centre for International Health/Swiss Tropical Institute in Basel, Switzerland. He holds a PhD and a Master's Degree in Health Economics from London University and York University, UK, respectively.

Contact: guy.hutton@worldbank.org

Kamal Kar, Expert on Community Led Total Sanitation, Calcutta, India

Dr. Kamal Kar from Bangladesh is known as an expert on the Community Led Total Sanitation approach (CLTS). This participatory approach is used for mobilising communities to completely eliminate open defecation. Kamal Kar is originally specialised in Livestock Production, Agriculture and Natural Resources. Currently, he works as an independent consultant in social and participatory development, where he shares his expertise as a trainer to governments, donor agencies and NGOs throughout Asia, Africa and Latin America.

Contact: kamalkar@yahoo.com

Ifeoma Charles-Monwuba, WaterAid, Abuja, Nigeria

Ifeoma Charles-Monwuba is head of the Policy and Partnership department of the international NGO WaterAid in Nigeria. She is also a Packard/Gates Fellow in Population Leadership of the University of Washington at Seattle, USA. Formerly, Ifeoma was Communications Manager for the Society for Family Health (SFH), one of Nigeria's largest NGOs, promoting child, maternal, reproductive health as well as HIV/AIDS reduction and prevention. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Mass Communication from Anambra State University of Science and Technology, now Enugu State University of Science and Technology (ESUTECH), and a Master in Communication Arts (MCA) from the University of Ibadan and an International Law and Diplomacy (MILD) from the University of Lagos.

Contact: ifeomacharlesmonwuba@wateraidnig.org