The Permanent Missions of Niger and Singapore to the UN in New York are pleased to invite you to a side event on:

Women's Access to Sanitation and Hygiene in the Informal Sector

Monday 20th, March 2017, 8:15 to 9:30 am
Conference Room 7, United Nations Headquarters, New York

Chaired by
Mr Barmou Salifou, Minister of Water and Sanitation of Niger

Remarks by
Ambassador Burhan Gafoor, Permanent Representative of Singapore to the UN

This side event will present findings on the challenges women face in accessing facilities for sanitation and menstrual hygiene when working in the informal sector and seek to identify possible solutions. An interactive dialogue will provide a space for women to highlight their experiences and to bring their voices to the table, recognising that measures to bring about change should be based on the participation of women working in the informal sector.

RSVP to anthony.dedouche@wsscc.org
Breakfast will be provided at 7:30 am.
