

Reducing inequalities through urgent action on WASH: SDG6 as an enabler for achieving the 2030 Agenda for all

Side event at HLPF 2018

Tuesday 10 July 2018, 13:15-15:30 (lunch served at 13:00)

Japan Society, 333 E 47th St, between 1st & 2nd Avenues, Auditorium

This event will bring together Member States with leaders in action on water, sanitation and hygiene (WASH) to frame how action on WASH is both achievable and essential in ensuring the dignity and wellbeing of all and realizing the 2030 Agenda.

Organized by: WaterAid, Water Supply and Sanitation Collaborative Council, Center for Economic and Social Rights, Movement for Community-Led Development, and the Permanent Missions of Bolivia, Canada, Mozambique and Nepal to the United Nations

Women and girls, along with other groups facing discrimination, poverty and social exclusion, experience significant limitations in access to clean water, decent toilets, and good hygiene – and see immediate benefits in terms of education, wellbeing and livelihoods when these services are available and their rights guaranteed.
